

Call for Participants

The Benjamin Franklin Institute of Global Education and OnLine Training Institute are pleased to announce our Call for Presenters for Global Learn Day 2017 “Innovating Education – Building a Bridge to the Future”. All are invited to submit a presentation proposal for our 24 hours voyage around the world that embraces the concept of “One People, One Planet”, celebrates Education and embodies our 2017 theme.

Important Dates

August 1st – Submission Deadline – Please submit a topic, how you will be presenting (phone conference bridge, Pre-Recorded Video or Facebook Live) and three time slots you are interested in using the form below. (insert link)

August 26th – Presenters notified about selections and Time Slot

September 1st – Release signed and returned – This is a release allowing GLD to use the video/materials presented for future GLD’s.

September 15th – Prerecorded Videos due to GLD Crew – If your presentation is being Pre-Recorded, it is due to mefabian@olt.im on this day.

October 7th – 8th – Global Learn Day 2017

Why Present – Your presentation should highlight your work in the area of education and learning, showcase your ideas, call attention to your organization, and be a celebration of learning in your part of the work.

Target Audience – Your presentation will be presented with a world stage in mind. The majority of live presentations will be viewed and heard in your region of the world. But other parts of the world will become aware of your presentation and engage with your content.
